

"FURLEY & BUTTRUM"
English Merino Underwear.

JAMES McCREERY & CO.
Call special attention to their Fall Importation of this celebrated line of

HONG YEN CHANG CAN'T PRACTISE.

The General Term Discriminates Against a Would-Be Chinese Lawyer.

The following applicants, who were successful in their examination before Supreme Court Commissioners Cardozo, Hornblower and Ransom, have been admitted to the bar of this State: Frederick E. Worch; Percy Jackson, Reginald Woodward, Burr J. Ramage, Emil Schultze, jr., John C. Martin, Raphael R. Govin, Jesse S. Epstein, Everett Brown, Richard G. Babbage, Charles H. Cohen, Jr., Clifford T. Eagle, Henry A. Hoelzel, Russell T. Low, Charles B. Bostick, Howard A. Taylor, Albert Symington.

Henry B. Twombly, William W. Mumford, Theodore G. Lewis, John S. Kennedy, James L. McMan, Robert C. Everts, Walter C. Thomas, the Alexander Term, however, refused to admit him when he presented himself for examination.

He made an affidavit that he was a resident of this city and a subject of the Emperor of China, that he had applied to the United States District Court of New York to be made a citizen, but that he was refused on the ground that existing laws forbade the naturalization of Chinese subjects. Chang then applied for a writ of habeas corpus to the Court of Appeals and had one for his relief passed by the Legislature May 2, 1887.

A copy of this act is annexed to and said: "The General Term of the First Department of the Supreme Court has hereby authorized to waive allegiance of Hong Yen Chang, a native of China, and now a resident of the city of New York, and to regularly admit,

and license him to practise as an attorney residing in a satisfactory manner the usual examination for the admission for attorneys and counsellors.

GRAVES OF THE ANARCHISTS.

Will the Bodies be Allowed to Rest in Waldheim Cemetery?

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The directors of Waldheim Cemetery next yesterday to consider the disposal of the five dead Anarchists. After a two-hour discussion of the matter, the fol-

was adopted:

Resolved, By the Board of Directors of the Walden Cemetery Company, that the corpse of any person who has been sentenced and executed by legal authority shall be allowed a burial place in the said cemetery, and the lot wherein it is proposed to bury it shall have been owned by said deceased or one of his near relatives by blood and be duly recorded on the company's books and the directors may, by a majority vote of all the directors, grant exemptions from the foregoing, but its provisions for the proposed location of the grave must be strictly obeyed.

Pursuant to this resolution a committee was appointed to confer with the representatives of the friends of the deceased, looking to the location of the grave in the cemetery, should the friends decide to inter the remains in Walden.

GOVERN PUT ON TRIAL.

Peter J. Gorven, who stabbed and killed Michael Smith in a drunken quarrel at McCabe's saloon, 174 Grand street, on the night of Dec. 31, 1886, and whose case has been dragging along from court calendar to court calendar since February, was at last brought to trial before Judge Gildersleeve in Part III, of the Court of General Sessions this morning.

Ex-Judge George M. Curtis appeared for the defendant, and Assistant District-Attorney Vernon M. Davis acted as prosecuting counsel.

The entire morning session of the Court was occupied in the examination of witnesses, the result being the seating of one man in the jury box.

• • •

In Memory of Father Kirner.

The "month's mind" mass for Father Kirner, who died from injuries received by the falling of the walls of his parochial school, was held this morning at the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

At Harlem. Schmidt's solemn requiem mass was sung by Father Busand, S. J. Father Alovas himself officiated as deacon and Father Di Nicco sub-deacon. After the mass two panegyrics of the dead priest were delivered. The first, which was in Italian, was pronounced by Father Annetus, of the Sullivan street Roman Catholic church. The other was in English, by Father Arkell, of Hastings, England.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE WORLD.)
LONDON, Nov. 18.—Mr. Farnell has written a letter to a news agency stating that his health is slowly but steadily improving. He does not intend to speak during the parliamentary recess, as his doctors have advised him to avoid exertion which would probably bring on chills. He has also been warned against undue exertion. He is now staying at Haslemere, where he will remain during the winter unless the weather becomes so severe as to compel him to go to Egypt.

A Victory for Photographer Falk.
[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Judge Nelson has issued an order restraining the Forbes Lithograph manufacturing Company from printing and publishing a lithograph representing Annie Pixley, an actress, at a wash tub. The order was issued in a bill brought by Benjamin J. Falk, of New York, a photographer, who claims that the photograph is an infringement of a copyright upon a

A Victory for Photographer Falk.
 A special order was issued by the Boston, Nov. 15.—Judge Nelson has issued an order restraining the Forbes Lithograph manufacturing company from printing and publishing a lithograph representing Annie Pixie, a actress, at a wash tub. The order was issued at a suit brought by Benjamin J. Falk, of New York, a photographer, who claims that the photograph is an infringement of a copyright upon a similar photograph taken by him.

New Fire-House Wanted.
 The committee of the Sinking Fund Commission, consisting of Mayor Hewitt, Comptroller Loew and commissioner of Public Works Newton, to select sites for new fire-houses, met to-day at the Mayor's office. Fire Chief Shays asked to have two firehouses closed, one at the corner of Third street and Sixth avenue and the other at One Hundred and nineteenth street and Tenth avenue. The sites

Death Follows a Fall.
Fanny Kelspola, 6 years old, of 1 Batavia street, while looking out of a fourth story window this morning, lost her balance and fell to the sidewalk, receiving injuries from which she died before the ambulance arrived.

Notes of Brooklyn News.
The clothing store of Joseph Freeman, at 771 1/2 Broadway, Williamsburg, was entered by an unknown man some time last night and robbed of six coats, valued at $100. The burglar effected an escape by forcing the bars of a rear window.

Nicholas Cressa, aged ten years, was put out of home at 39 McEerole street late last night by stepfather. The boy says that because he was able to obtain work his stepfather had subjected to the most unfatherly treatment. Nicholas is taken care of by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Death Follows a Fall.
Fanny Helspolo, 5 years old, of a Batavia street, while looking out of a fourth story window this morning, lost her balance and fell to the sidewalk, receiving injuries from which she died before the ambulance arrived.

All closed out. Keep in view this great sale will only last one more day more.
Men's Suits Overcoats, $2.95; guaranteed worth $16., or money returned. Men's elegant Egyptian Overcoats, $2.95; guaranteed value regular $20. Overcoats, $2.95; guaranteed value regular $28. A splendid suit worth $16. or money returned. Extra fine tailor-made suits, $1.95; guaranteed value regular $16. An elegant pair of slacks, $1.95. Winter Pants, $1.95. A superb waistcoat worth $3. Hats and 20,000 different other goods at such low prices as to be profitable to you. Large building, corner of Broadway and West Street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, New York City.
 The address is T-78 and T-79 Broadway, between Astor place and Fourth street, New York City. Both buildings open from 9 to 5 in the winter months except on Saturdays.

He never got. His mother and his sister received letters from him this morning at last that he was still alive. The letters gave news concerning his whereabouts.

Broker Moon Not Guilty.
[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
CLEVELAND, Nov. 12.—Broker E. L. Moon, who charged with aiding Isaac Stanley in his $100,000 belonging to the National Bank Commerce, which sum Stanley lost through wheat and corn, was this morning declared guilty in the United States Court.

the grasshopper fell down a coal chute. Last evening Agent Stocking, of Mr. Gorry's society found one uncle under the floor and the other drunk on a mattress and the boy very hungry. The boy was committed to an institution at the Jefferson Market Court to-day.

Sentence of a Confidence Woman.
Emily L. Hudson, the confidence woman who was allowed to plead guilty to petty larceny, was before Recorder Smyth for sentence to-day. She was sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary and $100.

One of Cohnfeld's Indorseers Sued.
A National Park Bank to-day obtained from the Barretts an attachment against the property of George H. Lichtenstein. The suit is on a note for $20,000 given by Isidore Cohnfeld, the master of leather manufacturers, and indorsed by Lichtenstein, which has gone to protest. The allegations are that Lichtenstein has disposed of his property to defraud his creditors, and has transferred his residence, 15 East Sixty-seventh street, to his wife for a nominal consideration.

Mr. McAdie, George Ventner, Judge Ellison, Edward Miner, William E. Grinitz, Dr. H. H. Brown, Dr. J. W. Fendley, William Dawson, G. B. McLaughlin, W. F. Demarest and Dr. Peterson and others.

Last of the Alasca's Passengers.

With few exceptions all of the Alasca's passengers landed at Castle Garden last night from Quarantine have gone to their respective destinations. The steamboat Fletcher went down again this morning for the remaining Italians, 900 in all.